

Brian McIntyre joins FLUX Studio as Principal and Owner. Trained as an engineer with an emphasis in lighting and architectural design, Brian brings over 17 years of high profile and award winning architectural lighting and daylight design experience to FLUX Studio. Brian is a diligent full service lighting designer devoted to an integrated and energy conscientious design approach that creates custom environments for museums, commercial buildings and residences.